

Anna Sliwon

bio_pic

Anna graduated at the University of Bradford in May 2010 with a BA in International Relations and Security Studies. She is NATO Watch's first intern (June-September 2010) and her research interests include transatlantic and European security as well as arms control (chemical and nuclear weapons and missile defence), with a focus on NATO and its relationship with elements of the emerging EU defence pillar. Her undergraduate dissertation focuses on the impact of 9/11 attacks on NATO.

- Staff and Associates

View PDF