

NATO Reform Lite: An Evaluation of the Lisbon Summit (Part I)

Original publication date

Fri, 11/26/2010 - 00:00

- New Alliance blueprint oversold as a transformation – NATO 3.0 – when much of it is a slow-cooking evolution
- Afghanistan exit strategy masks divisions over conduct of war, lessons learnt and pace of withdrawal
- Russian re-set built around missile defences, cooperation in Afghanistan and a future joint security review

Contents

Official Documents of the Lisbon Summit

Headline Decisions

Summary Assessment

- Strategic Concept
- Afghanistan

Post-Summit Guide to Key NATO Reforms and Policy Changes

- NATO reform
- Collective defence and arms control

Improving capabilities

Missile defence

NATO's nuclear forces

Weapons of mass destruction

NATO and the fight against terrorism

Defending against cyber attacks

NATO's role in energy security

Arms control disarmament and non-proliferation

Conventional arms control

See Part II for a post-summit guide to NATO decisions in relation to 'crisis management' and 'cooperative security'

- Transparency & Accountability
- Strategic Concept
- Space Security
- Research
- Nuclear Weapons
- Missile Defence
- Institutional Reform
- Military spending
- Counter Terrorism
- Arms control and disarmament

An_Evaluation_of_the_Lisbon_Summit_Part_I.pdf
View PDF